ESA Research Network 03 "Biographical Perspectives on European Societies" in association with Biographical Narrative Interpretative Method (BNIM) Study group of Sociological Association of Ireland (SAI)

A two-day interactive online event: "Biographical work in a time of social distancing: interview(s), analysis, interpretation", 25-26 September 2020

Application form for speakers.

Please complete the form and submit it to ESARN03webinars@oxford-xxi.org by 15th August 2020

Name and academic title

Affiliation (University, institution, independent researcher) and position
How long have you been working with biographical methods?
Are (auto) biographical methods the main focus or part of your teaching/research interests?
Please specify the area of your research
What is your current research project/work in progress (this can be a teaching or research project), paper/chapter work in progress.
What session are you applying for and what aspect of biographical research would you like to present (namely, interviewing technique;
analysis; interpretation)?
Are you a member of ESA?
Are you a member of RN03?
Would you consider joining Research Network 03 'Biographical perspectives on European societies'?
European societies'?
•
European societies'?  Abstract (maximum 200 words)
•
•
•
•
•
•
•
•
•
•
•
•
•
•
•
•	